IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of Mrs. Fannie Jameson Hodges, by her father, sisters and brothers, nieces and nephews.
Who lives in her eyes and joy in her speech.
Our lovely dear Duggie is out of our reach.
Three years ago God called her home,
Leaving us with many a sad lonely day.
We can't name the ways she was precious to us.
She lived among us and held our trust.
She brightened the darkness of many a day.
By the deeds that she did in her sweet kindly way.
Now our family circle is saddened and broken,
Because of the absence of her loving heart.
Her memory is precious we cherish it too.
And know she has found peace in a land that is new.
In each of our lives there's an empty space.
No one else can fill it, that we'll have to face;
But life here is short, then we'll join you there.
In our heavenly where joy is a-bound.
In our heavenly home where joy is abundant and peace we will share. 1tc

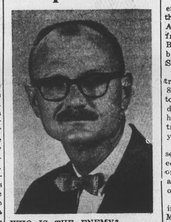
To Speak Here



WHO IS THE ENEMY?

"Who is the Enemy?" will be the topic for discussion at the Appomattox Elementary school Saturday, August 11, 1962 at 8:00 p. m. Dr. T. O. MacAdoo will be the speaker. The program, sponsored by the Appomattox County Farm Bureau is being held to inform interested persons about the dangers of the communist-socialist conspiracy.

Dr. MacAdoo is a professor of English and foreign languages at V. P. I. In recent years Dr. MacAdoo's reputation as a speaker against the communist threat has made him a well known personality across Virginia.

The Appomattox Farm Bureau invits each of you to be with us Saturday night,

CONFERENCE ON EDUCATION

A conference which may have an influencing effect upon the educational programs of each county and city in the State is scheduled for Friday, November 16, 1962, at the John Marshall Hotel in Richmond.

This Conference on "Utilizing Community Facilities and Programs in Education for Aging in Virginia" is at the grass roots level and will lay the foundation for preparation for retirement, a problem which, because of the rapidly increasing population of over-age persons, is becoming alarming.

A carefully laid out program is scheduled and letters of invitation are being mailed to members of County Boards of Supervisors, Mayors and Boards of Councils of cities and to the Superintendents of all school divisions in Virginia.

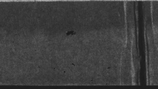
Dr. Woodrow W. Wilkerson, State Superintendent of Public Instruction; A. C. deParry, Area Director, Division of Extension and General Studies of the University of Virginia; Dr. Donald R. Pessler, Extension Sociologist of Virginia Polytechnic Institute and President of the Adult Education Association of Virginia; Miss Nettie Yowell, Assistant State Supervisor of Industrial Education of the State Department of Education; and State officials are cooperating with and will speak on the conference program, which is sponsored by the Virginia Commission on the Aging.

In addition to Governor Albertis S. Harrison, Jr., the leading speakers on the program will be Senator William B. Hopkins of Roanoke; Francis Copenhaver, President-elect of the Virginia School Board Association; Fred O. Wygal, President of Longwood College; Charles H. Taylor, Executive Vice-President of the Virginia Manufacturers Association; and Mrs. Gale Hounshell, President of the Virginia Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs.

EDUCATION - AID BILL

.."The Kennedy Administration has revived its hopes of prying out of a Senate - House conference committee a compromise bill to provide federal aid for higher education.

Senator Humphrey (D., Min.) predicts it can be done, and President Kennedy may improve the sagging batting average of his legislative program. Thus, nullifying the Republican charge that a Democratic President has failed to get any important accomplishment out of a Democratic Congress.



THE JAYCEES

The first quarterly work conference of the Virginia Jaycees for this year will be held in Danville Aug. 17, 18, and 19. Attending from this chapter will be President Billy Chenault, State Director, Bobby Mitchell and Vice President Bill Sperry.

Another reminder about the country music show, Saturday night at 8 p. m. in the High School Auditorium. Ray Pillow and the Stardusters along with Berk Bryant have a real good program of country music and comedy lined up for your entertainment.

There has been some delay in the seat belt order which will be corrected soon. If you have not placed your order as yet please do so immediately. Any member will take you order.

The board of directors will meet in the Garment Company Cafeteria Monday, August 13, at 7 p. m. All board members are urged to be present.

Woman Society Of Christian Service

One of the highlight, for the Virginia Conference Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist Church is the Annual School of Missions and Christian Service at Randolph-Macon Woman's College. It is to be held this year August 20-24, with the Wesleyan Service Guild coming in for their week-end of Missions Aug. 25-26. In each emphasis will be given to the World Mission of the Church through an intensive study in the area of world and national missions, christian social relations, spiritual life, and a prepared leadership for the total program.

The very timely studies chosen for this year are: The Christian Mission on the Rim of Southeast Asia, dealing with Korea, Twaiwan Hong Kong and Okanawa; The Church's Mission and Persons of Special Need, dealing with handicapped persons; Today's Children for To-morrow's World; and Prayer.

Evenings will be devoted to Bible study under the leadership of Dr. Mary Frances Thelen, Associate Professor of Religion at Randolph-Macon. Roy D. Whitlock of Richmond is Chairman of the school committee, Mrs. Raymond E. Musser of Norfolk is Co-chairman and Mrs. Richard H. Owen, III of Richmond is Dean. Others assisting are: Mrs. W. G. Bates, Jr., of Staunton, Registar; Miss Pearl Hall, of Stuart, nurse; and Mrs. A. P. Pettyjohn of Lynchburg, Chairman of Public Relations and editor of daily news sheet. Registration blanks can be secured from district secretaries of missionary education. Registration will be from 11:00-5.00 on Monday at Randolph-Macon College.

Subscription rate: $2.00 a year; payable in advance.

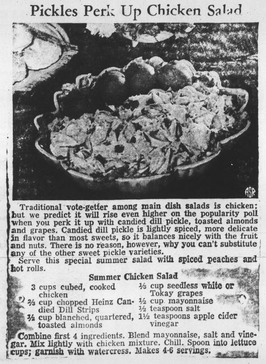
FFA Group Attends Camp

Fifteen members of the Appomattox Chapter of the Future Farmers of America and their advisor attended the FFA-FHA Camp which is located in Smithfield, Virginia on the James River. The members of the Appomattox chapter joined approximately 185 other FFA and FHA members from throughout the state.

During the stay at camp the group attended the historic drama "The Common Glory," which was showing in Williamburg and toured Jamestown. A fishing trip was also planned for the group while at camp.

Members of the Appomattox FFA chapter who attended camp were Ronald Millner, David Pugh Jimmy Garrett, Delly O'Brien, Billy Guthrie, Ralph Reynolds, Tom Maxwell Edwin Stanley, Sam, Scott, Cecil Deaner, Eddie Covington, Earl Day Fred Martin, Winifred Nash, and Thomas Lacado. The group was accompanied by their advisor and instructor of vocational agriculture, R. B. Carter.

Pickles Perk Up Chicken Salad



Traditional vote-getter among main dish salads is chicken; but we predict it will rise even higher on the popularity poll when you perk it up with candied dill pickle, toasted almonds and grapes. Candied dill pickle is lightly spiced, more delicate in flavor than most sweets, so it balances nicely with the fruit and nuts. There is no reason, however, why you can't substitute any of the other sweet pickle varieties.

Serve this special summer salad with spiced peaches and hot rolls.

Summer Chicken Salad

3 cups cubed, cooked chicken
⅔ cup chopped Heinz Candied Dill Strips
¼ cup blanched, quartered, toasted almonds
½ cup seedless white or Tokay grapes
½ cup mayonnaise
½ teaspoon salt
1½ teaspoons apple cider vinegar

Combine first 4 ingredients. Blend mayonnaise, salt and vinegar. Mix lightly with chicken mixture. Chill. Spoon into lettuce cups; garnish with watercress. Makes 4-6 servings.

Pamplin Ruritan Club

The Pamplin Ruritan Club will hold it's regular monthly meeting on Friday, August 10th. The meeting this month will center around a community "Brunswick Stew" to be held at the elementary school. Invitations have been extended to the Oakville and Evergreen Ruritan Clubs to attend this meeting.

The lights at the Pamplin Recreation Center have been installed and are in use. Many thanks are extended to all who have contributed their time, effort and money to this project. It is hoped that the area will continue to be improved as a recreational center in the future.

Attended Camp

Six girls from the Appomattox Chapter, Future Homemakers of America, attended FFA-FHA Camp, Smithfield, Virginia, July 30 - August 4. Those attending were Carolyn Coleman, Jane Williams, Debbie Thomas, Merlyn Martin and Barbara Thomas.

While at camp each girl participated in all phases of camp life. The following awards were won by the Appomattox girls: Camper of the Week, Softball and Vollyball championship, Talent Show and the Muskel Award.

Carolyn Coleman was selected the Camper of the Week, Merlyn Martin won first place in the fashion show for a sports outfit and third for a party dress. Barbara Thomas won third for her sports outfit and second for her casual outfit.

In individual sports the croquet championship was won by Barbara Thomas.

Snow - Ice Control Was Expensive

Virginia when it sizzles might make a few winter blasts seem welcome — except for the cost.

The State Highway Department has announced that nearly four million dollars was spent on snow removal and ice control during the past winter. The total cost was $3,937,751, slightly less than the all-time high of $3,957,944 of the winter before.

The 1961-62 figures showed that maintenance costs on primary roads totaled $2,620,570, while $1,317,181 was spent on the secondary roads.

The cost summary also showed that expenditures to keep the state's highways clear were greatest in the Culpeper District, where $486,985 was spent on the primary roads and $241,013 on secondary roads for a total of $727,998.

The Staunton District was next with a cost of $635,282. Removal on the primary system in that district cost $351,275 and on the secondary system $284,067, the latter figure topping that of fal other district for expenditures ir this category.

Total cost figures in the other districts were: Bristol, $554,421 Salem, $520,484; Richmond; $502 880. Lynchburg $432,892; Fredericksburg, $342,936; and Suffolk, $231,759.
